Organizational Announcement

Please join me in welcoming Jared Gorman as our new Regional Sales Manager - Texas. Jarred is responsible for driving sales revenue throughout the state of Texas.

Jared brings over ten years of successful spine sales and national contracting experience to Medacta USA. Jared began his career with DepuySynthes, in 2007 where he was a consistent top performer within the spine division; winning rookie of the year in 2010, achieving quota six of eight years and collecting numerous region of the year awards. Following his successful career at DepuySynthes, Jared most recently worked as a Portfolio Executive with Viziant, a national GPO. Over the span of Jared's career he has proven his ability to be a creative thinker, team player, a leader and significant contributor. Jared is an honors graduate from the University of North Texas. He and his wife, Kayla, share a son, Liam and are expecting another addition to the family this summer!

Jared's addition to the team is another step in our commitment to grow our spine organization and sales channel. Please reach out to Jared and welcome him to the Medacta family!
