Organizational Announcement

Please join me in welcoming Jeremy Moore as Medacta Spine's new Regional Sales Manager - California. Jeremy is responsible for driving sales revenue and building a team throughout the state of California, for both our direct and distributor business.

Jeremy brings over seventeen years of successful spine sales and management experience, most recently managing Northern California for Zimmer Biomet. Jeremy began his career with Shire Pharmaceuticals, in 1999 where he was a consistent top performer; winning multiple awards, recognitions and promotions. Following his successful career at Shire, Jeremy transitioned to the spine industry with Medtronic. Jeremy continued his growth, quickly building the geography, becoming a multiple President's award winner and consistently achieving quota. Looking to further his development, Jeremy spent the last three years as a Regional Manager at Zimmer Biomet, building distribution and most recently spearheading the integrations of the two businesses. He has proven his ability to be both an analytical and creative thinker, team player, a leader and significant contributor. Jeremy is a graduate from California State with three degrees in Education, Business and Science. Jeremy and his wife, Laura, and their two boys reside in Sacramento, California.

Jeremy's addition to the team is another step forward in our commitment to invest in the growth of the business. Please reach out to Jeremy and welcome him to the Medacta family!
